

GIBBONS A 2 TO 1 FAVORITE OVER GREB IN TONIGHT'S FIGHT

Tom Is Expected to Stop the Pittsburgh Windmill

Garden Reservations Indicate That Bout Between Light Heavyweights Will Be Viewed Through Lognettes as Well as Eye Patches.

By W. O. NEGERHAN.

Tom Gibbons, own brother to Mike, the St. Paul ring phantom, and Harry Greb, the celebrated Pittsburgh windmill, will furnish entertainment tonight at Madison Square Garden in a bout that will be socially important but fiscally not so important. Reservations indicate that social leaders from all sections of the city will be posted at prominent points near the ringside. The bout will be viewed through lognettes as well as through eye patches.

According to those who have had a peek at Madison Square Garden's social register for the evening Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Astor, the Roosevelts, Teddy and Kermit, the Longworths of Washington, Mrs. Angier B. Duke and others will be seen in the auditorium. Many reservations have been made for social leaders among the Hudson Dusters, the Gophers and the exclusive Gashouse district.

The meeting to-night will be the fourth reunion of Gibbons and Greb, who are two of the best of the light heavies since the venerable Battling Levinsky got himself hit on the chin by Georges Carpentier and became more or less passive. The profits of the bout are to go to the milk fund, consequently there is no objection to the press agent making use of the police fiction that Jack Dempsey will meet the winner.

If Dempsey does meet the winner that unfortunate party probably would choose the exit nearest to him. No light heavy is even going to annoy the celebrated heavyweight actor for some time to come at any rate.

According to the latest quotations Gibbons is a two to one favorite over Greb. The preponderance of opinion is that Tom will knock Harry loose from his anchorage before the scheduled fifteen rounds have been reeled off. Greb, who is a busy creature in the ring, resents the insinuation that he will emerge from the ring with resin dust on the seat of his tightie. He promises to keep Mike Gibbons' little brother very busy all evening.

Some Social Rules.

Because of the number of distinguished guests expected Tammany Young, arbiter elegance of Madison Square Garden, has been asked to draft some catch-phrase rules of etiquette. Mr. Young, after giving the subject much serious thought, has promulgated the following code of practice for the evening.

Rule 1—Fighters having one cauliflower ear will keep their best ear forward in order that the attention of the guests will not be diverted from the ring.

Rule 2—Fighters having two cauliflower ears will not be permitted at ringside seats unless they provide themselves with earmuffs.

Rule 3—Ladies and party will be provided with Maxim silencers at the expense of the management. They will be compelled to have these affixed before they are seated. Mr. Kaplan and party are requested to keep their hands in their pockets in order that they may not obstruct the view of the people in the rear by excited conversation during the fight.

Rule 4—All blackjacks, rapisticks and other toys must be checked at the box office.

Rule 5—Guests wearing diamonds or jewels are requested to have them insured before the fight. There will be many strangers in the place to-night and the management cannot undertake to be responsible for the conduct of guests from Wall Street.

Rule 6—In all arguments the guests must protect themselves in the clinches and in the breakaways. Guests breaking chairs in arguments with friends must pay for the same.

Rule 7—Ladies are requested to refrain from smoking. Gents will be socked if caught.

Pans Crave Action.

The ordinary bugs are hoping that the lads will not be overcome by the refined atmosphere after their house-to-house search for the first prize. Less Willard after the Moran-Willard battle declared that the reason he did not knock Moran for a row of wild raspberry bushes was that there were so many nice ladies and gentle men in the house that he did not want to get messy.

This consideration, however, did not deter Richie Mitchell and Benny Leonard from getting very rough. Indeed, they battled at the Garden under the patronage of Miss Anne Morgan. The boys took turns sitting in the resin, only getting up to throw punches. While this bout to-night is for the benefit of the gentle Milk Fund, the lads will be given to understand that there is no reason for pulling the punches. The crowd is for the most part in the safe and the promoters are neutral. They do not care which boxer leaves on a stretcher.

For curtain raisers Joe Welling, the ex-mariner, will box Clonnie Tate, light-weight champion of Canada; George Marks of California will mingle with Al Goldstein of the immediate vicinity, and Larry Tenner will box Al Way. Harry M. Stevens will meet all comers with programs.

Dorgan Dreams On.

Joe Dorgan, still reported to be under the influence of an overdose of spaghetti, obtained by questionable means at the spaghetti joint of Jimmy Kelly on Sullivan street, is babbling incoherently of what Charlie White will do to Johnny Dundee on March 17. The addit's eyes gleam when he talks about the bout. "We expect to get enough from that bout to provide everybody with spaghetti," he says. "And then everybody will have pleasant dreams. Sometimes I feel a little sorry for Dundee and for Johnny Leonard too, because what will they do when the little playmate is slammed on the chin?"

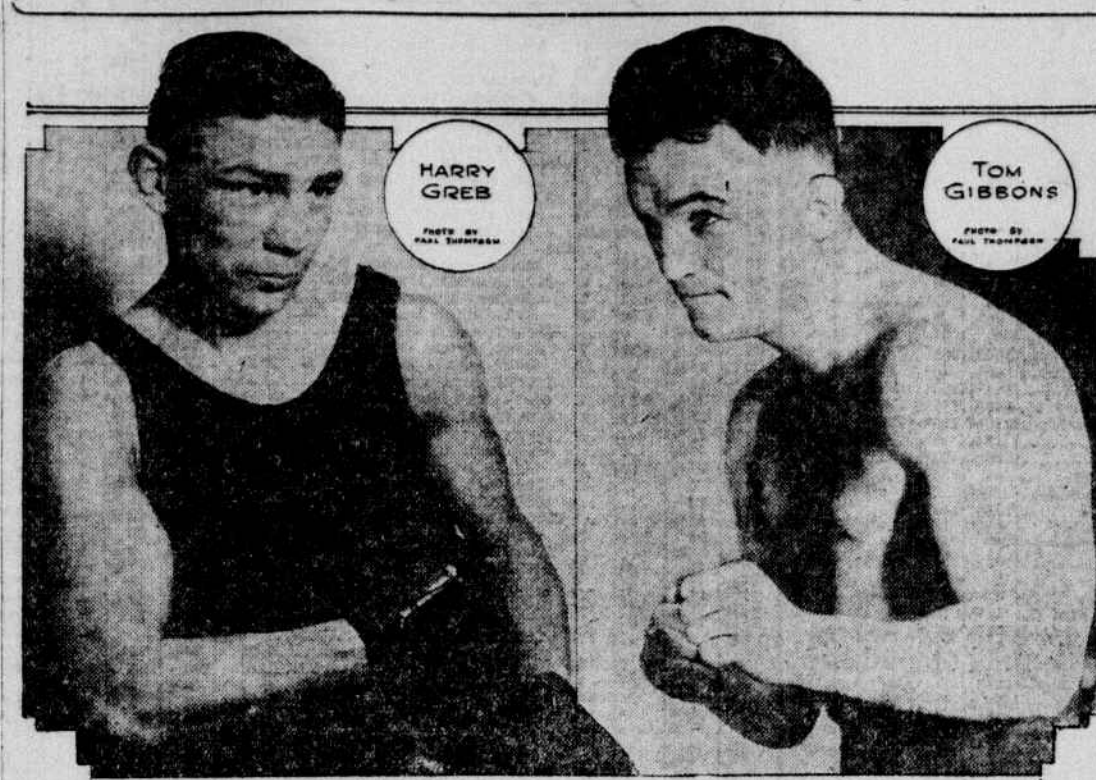

The card for the Pioneer Club tomorrow night promises to produce some action. The battlers who will endeavor that evening are Frankie Genaro and Jack Sayers, Andy Davis and Danny Lyons, Young Tiger and Young Lion. You can pick your own headliner and you may not be right at that.

Automotors are getting very loose with certified checks. Now comes Eddie Mead with a photograph of one for $30,000 which he declares is posted to be delivered to Johnny Buff when Johnny steps into the ring for a return match with Joe Lynch. While we have not seen the original check that posed for the photograph the picture seems to look all right in every respect. It is a full length photograph, but we understand that Mr. Mead is ready to furnish a replica if necessary. He will furnish a replica for persons who wish to frame them for their homes.

Japan and Belgium in Davis Cup Competition

CHALLENGES from Japan and Belgium received yesterday by the United States Lawn Tennis Association have brought the list of Davis cup competitors this year to twelve. A challenge from Rumania is said to be on the way.

Australia, British Isles, Canada, Denmark, France, India, Italy, Spain, Belgium, Japan, Hawaii and Czechoslovakia are the challenging nations to date. The draw is to be made on Thursday.
